

Installing EventLog Audit Service

New EMCO EventLog Audit Pro enables you to install EventLog Service on remote machines more quickly and easily. This tutorial will guide you on installing/uninstalling this service on different machines on your network.

To install EventLog Audit service:

To install EventLog Audit service, please perform the following steps:

1. Press the Ctrl key and keep it pressed and select the domains, workgroups, or machines that you want to process from the machines available in machine tree show in Machines tab.
2. Right click any of the selected machines and move your mouse pointer to EventLog Service Deployment menu item and select Install menu item from the new popup menu.

3. This will start installing EventLog Audit Service on the selected machines.
4. When the installation process finish an information dialog box will appear on the screen informing you that the installation of EventLog Audit service on selected machines has been completed.
5. Click Ok button on the information dialog box.

6. You have successfully installed EventLog Audit Service on selected machines.

Uninstalling EventLog Audit Service

EMCO EventLog Audit Pro enables you to easily remove EventLog Service from remote machines on your network; with just a few clicks of mouse.

To uninstall EventLog Audit service:

To uninstall EventLog Audit service, please perform the following steps:

1. Press the Ctrl key and keep it pressed and select the domains, workgroups, or machines that you want to process from the machines available in machine tree show in Machines tab.
2. Right click any of the selected machines and move your mouse pointer to EventLog Service Deployment menu item and select Uninstall menu item from the new popup menu.

- An information dialog box will appear on your screen asking you to confirm your action click Yes button.

- This will start uninstalling EventLog Audit Service on the selected machines.
- When the un-installation process finish, an information dialog box will appear on the screen informing you that the removal process of EventLog Audit service on selected machines has been completed.

- Click Ok button on the information dialog box.

- You have successfully uninstalled EventLog Audit Service on selected machines.

Configure EventLog Audit to Remove Service After Scan

You can configure EMCO EventLog Audit Pro to automatically remove EventLog Audit service from remote machine after performing scan operations.

To configure EventLog Audit to remove service after scan:

To configure EventLog Audit to remove service after scan, please perform the following steps:

1. Switch to Settings tab by clicking Settings shown at the button of EventLog Audit Pro window.

2. Switch to Options tab shown under Settings tab.

3. Check the Remove DCOM Service and Remove Service checkboxes shown under On Disconnect node.

