

Permissions Audit XML Benefits

EMCO Software's efforts are always to make the network management easy, fast and accurate for Network Administrators. One of the tasks form a network administrator's to-do list is to keep an eye on the permissions for network shares and folders not only this but also to set them such that only authorized users have access to sensitive data; and for a large scale networks, it's not quiet an easy task.

EMCO Software has brought new an intuitive tool that makes the life of a network administrator easy. It provides a few clicks access to all tasks related to the management of permissions on different network resources. EMCO Permissions Audit XML is the tool that we have been talking about; let's have a look at the benefits that one can get by adopting this tool.

The main benefits you get from EMCO Permissions Audit are described below:

- ✧ Scan different domain/workgroups for all available servers with just a single mouse click
- ✧ Fetch a variety of permission based information from servers on a domain
- ✧ No need to install any client software on remote machines.
- ✧ All fetched information is organized in a new and nice look
- ✧ Generate on screen reports for the fetched data
- ✧ Print your reports
- ✧ Fetch data based on user access
- ✧ Fetch data based on resource access
- ✧ Show access to folders in available resources
- ✧ Show information about all or selected user
- ✧ Show access through Access via Any Token
- ✧ Filter fetched information about shares
- ✧ Filter fetched information about folders
- ✧ Compare different share scans data
- ✧ Compare different folder scans data
- ✧ Define Alternate Credential to perform scan operations
- ✧ Fetch information about available users and groups with just a single click of mouse
- ✧ Set permissions for share on local and remote machines
- ✧ Set permissions for folders on local and remote machines
- ✧ Very low network load.